INSTRUCTIONS TO AUTHORS

Allied Hearing Health magazine publishes articles and reports that cover issues relevant to the field of hearing health care and related topics. Allied Hearing Health considers original articles, book reviews, letters to the editor, and so on. All articles will be considered for publication; however, the editor and editorial review board reserve the right to reject unsuitable material. Authors must disclose any commercial interest in the article as well as the source of any support. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce copyrighted material from other sources and for ensuring the accuracy of all the information included in the article(s) submitted. The publication reserves the right to edit manuscripts for clarity and length and to ensure conformity with Allied Hearing Health Magazine's style.

Manuscript Preparation

Manuscripts should be double-spaced and no longer than 2,000 words. All manuscripts must be submitted electronically in a standard text form, that is, Word, txt, rtf, or Word Perfect.

Tables and Illustrations

Tables, figures, charts, boxes, and equations should be submitted as a separate file, not embedded in the text, and should contain a legend at the top of each submission. All print-ready photos are to be submitted separately in an acceptable electronic format at a minimum of 300 dpi. Acceptable formats include .eps, tif, or high-resolution .jpg.

References

Authors should use the Harvard system for referencing in their papers, rather than footnotes. References will be cited at the end of the paper. A sample layout for references is as follows:
Book: Jones, L. R., 1995, The firefighters concern, Blackwell, London. Source: Jones, L.R., 1997, Hazard Management in the Fire Service, The Australian Journal of Fire.

Permissions

Written permission must be obtained by the author to reproduce copyrighted material; this includes tables, figures, and quoted text that exceeds 150 words. Signed release forms are required for photographs of identifiable persons. A copy of all permissions and release forms must accompany the manuscript.

Submission of Manuscripts

Please submit manuscripts to: Allied Hearing Health Magazine Scott Bryant Editor
